Prophecy Of The Burning Wrath Of God

“Many shall go to the Lake of Fire forever, My son. Many shall experience My wrath on their lives for refusing to do My will. My wrath is on all who refuse to do My will, who live in sin. My wrath is everywhere on wicked sinners, yet I Am A God of Mercy. My wrath does not endure forever when sinners repent and accept My Son, Jesus. My wrath is on those who reject My Word and do not believe Me; My condemnation is on all who refuse to believe, and My wrath abides on them. I call all to repent, but few do, so My wrath is on the wicked who refuse to obey Me and repent, on sinners I Am angry the whole day long. Yet few choose to come out of My wrath and repent before Me. Many shall endure My Lake of Fire forever because they refuse to obey Me and repent. Oh, what a horrible fate, to be submerged in liquid fire, My son. Many will go there to be submerged in My Lake of Fire, including the Devil and his angels, and those who do not obey Me. I have given much time for sinners to repent, but few do. They shall endure My wrath forever, My son, in the Lake of Fire. I punish all wicked sinners in the fires of Hell, then I, the Father, subject them to the Great Judgment before Me. Eternal judgment is passed on them by Me on the Throne, then they are flung into the great Lake of Fire, where they shall burn forever. My wrath abides forever on all who do not repent, My son, and shall burn forever. Oh, what a terrible fate for wicked sinners everywhere, ceaseless punishment forever because they would not obey Me, My son, and repent. My condemnation is on all who refuse to repent and know My Son Jesus. Your LORD has spoken, amen and amen forever!”